AIDRIGS SPARE PARTS & MRO SOLUTIONS

AidRigs counts over twenty years' experience in automotive, heavy equipment, and industrial machinery support and has delivered spares kits and solutions to over fifty countries. Anyone can sell you parts, what makes us different is our ability to be your go-to supplier for all the parts and support you need to maintain your fleet. AidRigs works hand-in-hand with national emerging market representatives who ensure smooth customs and importation processes, take references and deliver samples directly, and are available on call when you need a trusted partner nearby.

Beyond spare parts and accessory kits, we do much more, from supplying industrial filtration assemblies, heavy machines and light vehicles directly from over 30 manufacturers, we are also paving the way towards sustainability in supporting local businesses near your operations and in protecting the environment. To save your operations money, AidRigs offers a double guarantee on alternative spares, where we pay you double parts back for any failure or replace it with the OEM original for free!
